Guidelines for Contributors

- 1. General : The article should address the current issues on agricultural research and development. It should be analytical with empirical evidences rather than based on authors own perceptions. Four copies of the manuscript typewritten in English in Microsoft Word file should be submitted to the Editors, whose address appears below. Authors should also submit the electronic version of the manuscript preferably in compact disc or send it to the email address given below.
- 2. Author's Identification : To protect anonymity in the reviewing process, authors should avoid disclosing their identity in the manuscript. Hence, a separate page should be attached with the manuscript showing the title of the article, name(s), affiliation(s) and address with email (if any) of the author(s) together with acknowledgements (if any) and ADJ thematic area that the article relates to.
- 3. Format of the Manuscript : All contents of the manuscript, except tables, figures, charts and mathematical expressions should be double-spaced on A4 size. The total words in the manuscript except tables, figures, charts, annexes and references should not exceed 7,000 words. The abstract should not exceed 300 words and should precede the main text. Mathematical expressions should be checked carefully for proofs. Long mathematical presentations should be put in appendices. Only the table, figure and chart numbers should be written in the manuscript and their content should be placed in a separate sheet.

The graphs, charts and photographs should be in black and white color. Link files of photographs and the excel link files of graphs and charts should also be submitted. Heading and subheadings should be typewritten in bold and title case. The font should be in Times New Roman with font size 11. The page setup should have margin of 2.5 cm in top, bottom and right and 3.0 cm in left. Generally, the article should include the following :

1. Title
 - Abstract
 - Key words (not exceeding 5-6)
 2. Introduction (Covering Statement of the Problem, Objective(s), Review of Literature)
 3. Materials and Methods
 4. Results & Discussions
 5. Finding(s)
 6. Conclusion / Recommendation
- 4. Footnotes: These should be numbered consecutively in plain Arabic superscripts with the notes typed at the end of the manuscript. Exceptions are (a) initial footnotes associated with the title of the article or author's name, denoted by an asterisk (or an asterisk and a dagger if two such notes are required) and (b) footnotes to a table indicated by lower-case superscript letters with the notes typed below the table.

- 5. References and Citations: These should follow the author-date system with the date appearing without brackets after the author. References should be typed at the end of the manuscript in alphabetical order. A few examples are given below.
